

HAIS Summer Assignment: AP Human Geography

Your summer assignment for this course is intended to give you a big picture view of major course units in geography. We will refer back to big ideas from these movies throughout the year.

Please note there are two parts to the summer assignment.

First: Watch a variety of the following sources and take brief notes regarding major themes from the media. You must watch at least three of the following for the assignment.

Agriculture:

A. Rotten Season 2: Bitter Chocolate and The Avocado War – please watch both episodes

Second: Watch three (3) of the assigned media and analyze each video using the analytic tool, ESPN. There should be a minimum of two (2) points of contact for each element of ESPN. Yes, you read that correctly ☺. For example, in the documentary Somewhere Between, a Social element that comes up is that baby girls are often abandoned because culturally it seen as a bad thing to have a daughter in China. (If you are unsure about what ESPN is, please see infographic below). In other words, share what you learned from these links and place them in the proper category. Use the chart below and please include the name of the videos you chose to watch.
