

course description

This is a music making class designed to offer the student an opportunity to learn musical concepts in depth and apply those concepts to the art of creating music through string ensemble playing.

expectations

complete all work withing the given timelines be polite and respectful to others no food during class learn from mistakes and improve grading policy learning – 70% – classroom assignments, quizzes, class participation assessments – 30% – summative assessments, tests, or projects