Foreword

"How beautiful is youth! How bright it gleams
With its illusions, aspirations, dreams!
Book of Beginnings, Story without End—"
Longfellow

This is truly a "Book of Beginnings." Herein are recorded a few of the highlights of the high school days of Milby's youth and a promise and prediction of its future. The staff hopes that in after years, when they have written deep into Life's Book, these young "authors" of today will have realized many of their aspirations and dreams and have found few illusions.

Dedication

In deep appreciation the annual staff of 1939 dedicates this book to Mrs. Fannie Davis of whom it truthfully can be said:

"... cheerful service and kind and loving thought
Are warp and woof of which her life is wrought ..."

ASCENSION

All things climb a starry stair,
By a law that no man knows.
What was yesterday a thorn
Shall tomorrow be a rose?
What was once a chrysalid
Soon shall soar, free fluttering;
What was yesterday a wish,
Will tomorrow be a wing!

ASCENSION

Un alma misteriosa hace que ascienda
todo por sideral escala;
Que lo que ayer fue espina manana
sera rosa,
Que lo que ayer fue larva, manana
es mariposa,
Que lo que ayer fue anhelo
manana sera ala.

HIS GARDEN

His young life was fresh as a flower,
His smile was as sweet as new morn,
He had planted himself a fair garden,
And gave it his love and his care.

Bright hopes were hung high in his garden,
He had planned it so well from his youth;
Of a delicate lace he had woven
A pattern of life, of true worth.

But scarce had the pattern unfolded
And scarce could his friends feel its worth,
When the mystery of life and its shadow
Called the gardener away from his work.

But the flowers he beautifully fashioned
With colors delicately fair,
Will bloom and will furnish his garden
With a fragrance eternal and rare.

WHAT AFTER HIGH SCHOOL?

Let Massey introduce you to an office position in keeping with your educational background. We do not promise to make of you a business executive; but we will train you for, and place you in a starting position where your talents and education will open to you opportunities without limit.

We are receiving constantly more calls from employers for Massey graduates than we have available to fill the very desirable office positions open to them.

We invite your investigation of our record in starting high school graduates on the road to success.

THE ROUND UP

"When you overtake the moving crowd,
Someone will voice their thoughts aloud;
'You'd better leave such runs alone,
And save your horse until we're done
With this day's work; to do it right
Will take all day and into the night.'
But oh! the wind, the sun, the air,
Make you reckless and free from care,
And you know that the sage who chides your ways,
Acted the same in HIS young days."

Varuna Hartmann Lawrence
(Mrs. A. B. Lawrence)
