This Saturday we remember those who lost their lives during the attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. Most of us who grew up in the fifties, sixties and seventies had fathers and uncles who fought in WWII, some of whom who were there at Pearl on that fateful day. We salute those who served in that great endeavor to preserve our freedom, and we honor their memory and sacrifice.

Have a delightful week!

John T. Threet, Principal

Welcome back. I hope everyone had a restful and Happy Thanksgiving.

Book drive has been postponed until February. Please see the website for more information.

Book Fair is next week. Stock up on holiday gifts and get shopping done in one, quick trip! We have moved the PTO Budget meeting to Monday, December 9 so it does not interfere with the Book Fair. Hope to see everyone there. Please check the website for updates and contact me with any questions.

KIDS CARE: Hygiene Kits

We collected more than 157 bags of toiletry items thanks to all the generous families of West U Elementary!

Due to the huge success of this service project we were able to provide hygiene products not only to Houston Area Women's Center and Ronald McDonald House, but also to the Salvation Army Family Long-term Shelter, YMCA Men's Shelter, Star of Hope Women & Children Transitional Shelter and SEARCH day Shelter.

Our gratitude goes to Direct Energy for supplying us with more than 400 blue bags to fill with toiletries and supply to the shelters for their guests.

Special thanks to Cara Michael and Mindy Rippstein for co-chairing this project and for all their energy and time. Big cheers to all the teachers for assisting the kids with all the notes, drawings, cartoons, puzzles and poems for Ronald McDonald House; they were amazing! Also, huge thanks to Jodie Rephlo, Nicole Choi Victor Song and Susanne Song for collecting items from the classrooms, helping sort and deliver all these necessary items to those in need. It is clear that West University KIDS CARE!

Laura Torgerson, Community Service Chair

Field Day Reminders

Please help make our Field Day a fun and safe event by following proper parent and child etiquette. All spectators who are approved through the HISD VIPS program and students must stay inside their class's section. Please stay back away from the event lanes. Do not stand inches away from the event participants since it creates an unsafe situation. Please move back prior to the start of each event. As a reminder, if you have not been VIPS approved, you will not be allowed to mingle with your child's class. We will have bleachers available for parents who have not completed this process yet who wish to observe the Field Day events.

School-age siblings may view Field Day from the bleachers but may not be on the field with the students. College-age siblings must be VIPS approved just like any other adult.

Annual Gently Used Book Drive

WUES's annual gently used book drive has been moved to February 17-20, just in time for some spring cleaning! Donated books go to underprivileged children right here in the Houston community. Volunteers are needed to help tally books and move them between the classrooms and the temporary building. If you have already collected books and want to donate them immediately, you may leave them on the front porch of Amy Barnes's house, 3702 Drake Street. Please contact Aaryn Silva at aarynsilva@sbcglobal.net for more information or to volunteer.

PTO Fall Budget Meeting

The fall budget meeting will be held Monday, December 9th at 7:00 p.m. It will be at this meeting where we vote on PTO budget requests. If you are planning to submit a request for funding from the PTO for improvement projects or purchases please visit the PTO website and fill out the budget form and submit it online or fill out a hard copy and put it in the VP of Budget and Finance box at the front office. Budget requests are due TODAY.
