

Health & Medical Services HEALTHY BODIES SUPPORT POWERFUL MINDS.

Monkey Pox Virus (MPV) Flowchart

Student Presents with Suspect Rash

Student is isolated in SHIP

Student is sent home

MD referral to confirm or rule out MPV

IF Student is confirmed

Student isolates at home until rash and scabs are gone.

 Student's family collects homework packets. Contact your campus for instructions

Houston Health Department (HHD) is Notified and they initiate the Contact Tracing process

Close contacts are notified as directed by the Health Department

Exposure with NO Symptoms

Follow CDC and HHD guidelines which may not include isolation if symptom-free

Monitor for symptoms, which includes rash, muscle aches, chills, fever, or headaches

Student Confidentiality is imperative. No Student should be identified as having MPV

a) early vesicle, 3mm diameter

b) small pustule, 2mm diameter

c) umbilicated pustule, 3-4mm diameter

d) ulcerated lesion, 5mm diameter

e) crusting of a mature lesion

f) partially removed scab