

Ms. Chen was born and raised in Austin, Texas, she has dedicated her career to ensuring high-quality education and supporting all students. She earned her bachelor's degree in early childhood education from the University of Texas at Austin and later obtained her master's in Educational Administration from Texas A&M University at College Station. With over 11 years of experience in Houston ISD, she has served in various roles, starting as a math and science teacher before becoming an interventionist, then a specialist, and currently an assistant principal. She is passionate about working in Title I schools and firmly believes serving the whole student ensures their academic success.