c. Phase 2A & 2B

- i. PAT is concerned about total square footage and accommodation of school.
- ii. PAT is concerned about overcrowding due to community growth in population and demographics
- iii. PAT is concerned that school program is not considering future growth
- iv. PAT questions about pool
- v. PAT questions if school is maintaining access to library
- vi. PAT - Have not received Meeting Minutes from March and April PAT meetings
- vii. PAT - Why was our initial total budget reduced from $79 million. Why are we getting a reduced program and sub-par treatment
- viii. PAT - Questions about pool, tennis courts and seating for football field
- ix. PAT is disappointed in treatment from HISD and questions intentions of the district concerning Yates High School

4. Theater

- a. PAT - Reduced, dual function design will NOT work for school's Theater arts program
- b. PAT - Portable stage is NOT suitable, an actual proscenium is needed.
- c. PAT questions how stage lights would be changed in new scheme and students involvement which is seen as unsafe.
- d. PAT explains that the current difficulties endured by the students with the existing theater amenities are not remedied with new reduced, dual function design. PAT questions why theater design was changed and reduced
- e. PAT - Theater department will never be able to host regional theater arts function with reduced design.
- f. PAT - Theater department will have great difficulty attempting to raise funds with reduced theater design.

5. Upcoming Meetings

- a. PAT Meeting, Thursday June 18, 2015, @ 5:30pm

6. What to expect at the next PAT Meeting:

- b. Plan and Design Adjustments
