languages and the dominate language will be used to test in. Mrs. Aguilar is supporting the grade level.

Girls Inc. – New to Shearn and is focusing on empowering young girls to be bold, smart, and caring. The program is a series of workshops for 5th grade girls. They meet Tuesdays in the Science Lab. Shearn is looking to expand the program to 4th grade.

Ms. Williams shared that the Mentor Program is off to a great start. New teachers meet with their mentors to discuss academics and first year challenges and successes. Ms. Williams is the coordinator and teachers can come to her at any time for a question or support.

Mrs. Fowler (CIS) is leading the Kindergarten reading mentor program. Students are matched with a volunteer and spend their ancillary time reading and partaking in literacy activities. Sessions range from 30-45 minutes. Mrs. Fowler prepares the reading activities and the meet up is in the cafeteria.

YMCA After-School Program – is off to a great start – students are using the playground, Math Lab, and the cafeteria to do homework and get to have fun with games and free-play after school. The program is reasonably priced and scholarships are available for those who qualify.

Library Renovation is on hold due to Hurricane Harvey – HISD contractors are currently unavailable to continue project. An update will be given in the spring time.

Caring Friends has adopted Shearn and has supported the Math academics by donating for the purchase of Reasoning Minds software.

Teacher Share-Out

Teacher shared out about progress so far this year. Teachers are working with students on routines and procedures and ensuring Sanford Harmony lesson are being conducted to support our students with social skills. Teachers expressed concerns about arrival, dismissal, breakfast service, and ancillary. Concerns were noted and will be address by the staff meeting.

Attendance goal is 98% and teachers agreed to monitor classroom attendance. If a student is out for more than 2 days they will call home and let Mrs. Aparicio know.

Parents concerns about lunch days have been voiced. Lunch days for parents will remain to ensure there is enough space for all students in the cafeteria. Parents who come on their dedicated day will enjoy lunch in the courtyard with their child.
