Campus Data	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discipline infractions have decreased by 200 incidents since Dec 2018 (463 to 263) • Mutual combats(fights) have decreased by 11 incidents since Dec 2018 (39 to 28). • Attributing factors include the addition of the Enrichment Block, Mentorship Programs, and Turn-Around Tuesdays. • Members were provided with literature on all three mentorship programs (ATM, Roger's University, and Sisterhood) • Some 6th gr parental concerns/ perception: There are fights every day, weapons are brought to school. Is enough being done by admin? Is every teacher teaching the Enrichment block? (a lesson plan was shown to the committee). Ms. Honore spoke on the campus culture and confirmed there was not a fighting issue on campus nor were weapons an issue on campus. Ms. Honore wrote an overview of the

	preventative and restorative measures taken at the school and provided it to PTO Newsletter Teacher committee member (Mr. Ademolu) spoke on how he utilizes the enrichment block.
