

Student Responsibilities

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Do our homework every day and ask for help when we need to.
- Read at least 30 minutes every day.
- Give to our parents or the adult who is responsible for our welfare all notices and information received by us from the school every day.
- Act as leaders who show respect to others and take responsibility for our actions.

IN THE CLASSROOM

Teachers and students will create a classroom environment that is conducive to the high-quality education, social/emotional learning and allow students to be facilitators of their own learning. The classroom goal is to improve Academic Performance, Increase the use of Quality Data to Drive Instruction, Increase Teacher quality, Increase Leadership Effectiveness.

Parent Responsibilities

Families will communicate with the teacher and school regarding their needs for students academically and socially progression. Parents/guardians will create a set schedule to assist with completing homework. Parents will utilize Class Dojo as a form of communication.

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitoring attendance
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Volunteering in my child's classroom and through PTO
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.

WHAT IS A SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT?

What is a School-Parent Compact?

A School-Parent Compact for Achievement is an agreement that parents, students, and teachers develop together. It explains how parents and teachers will work to together to make sure all our students reach grade level standards. J. R. Reynolds teachers, students, and parents developed this School-Parent Compact for Achievement. Teachers suggested home learning strategies, parents suggested ideas to make them more specific, and students told us what would help them learn. Meets are held each year to review the Compact and make changes based on student needs. Parents are welcome to contribute comments at any time!

JOINTLY DEVELOPED WITH PARENTS, THE SCHOOL PARENT COMPACT will:

Improve the parent/school partnership and communication.

Create various opportunities to participate and volunteer in events and activities.

Formulate goals to benefit out students academically and socially.

Students, Teachers, Parents – Working together for success!
